IN HONOUR of Nelson Mandela, Carrim builder and tile Mecca did their 67 minutes on last Wednesday.

And they handed over vouchers worth R2 000 to six charity organisations: Tshwane home of hope, Precious pearl, Lebohang orphanage, Olievenhoutsbotch disability, Thira ya Bana and the Zoleka Mandela Foundation-Badisa daycare.

The ceremony, which was held at one of their biggest stores on the corner Bosman and Boom streets, in Tshwane, was also graced by one of Mandela's granddaughters, Zoleka Mandela.

Carrim's Director, Aby Carrim said: "This is a reminder to our customers and staff, what charity is all about. And there's nothing better than to mark it on a day like this."

Zoleka told guests: "I'm honoured to be here to come and share a few words with you and to be part of the handing over of these donations."
